

MRS. GRANT AT REST.

News Notes—From a Thriving "Lone Star" City.

San Antonio, Texas.—The remains of the late Mrs. Bishop A. Grant arrived in this city on Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd at 6 p. m. over the Southern Pacific railway. A host of friends met the remains and they were taken to the St. James A. M. E. church and lay in state until Sunday morning when Dr. D. J. Hill, pastor, preached an able sermon reviewing her past life in the Alamo City. The Bishop could not speak on the occasion. At 10 a. m. the remains were removed from the church and interred in East End cemetery. The funeral was one of the largest witnessed in San Antonio for many years. Bishop Grant remained over until Wednesday night and lectured to a crowded house.

Mr. J. M. Shelburn was appointed bailiff to the United States court, Western District of Texas and is performing his duties with great satisfaction. Mr. Shelburn has a host of well wishers in southwest Texas.

Mr. Jessie M. Bumbay of this city was appointed one of the clerks in the registration office during the recent registration of voters. His appointment scores another victory for our people. Mr. Bumbay is a very popular young man and is coming politician.

Mr. David E. Hughes, our efficient policeman had his little finger broken while trying to restore order in a white dive on the west side.

Officer Albert North is suffering with the la grippe, banquet Monday for the first time in over a week.

Mr. W. H. Mitchell of the Letter Carrier's force is ill at his home on Chestnut street, another case of grippe.

Friends of Miss Gladys Covington will be pleased to know that she is now visiting relatives in Los Angeles, Cal. Miss Covington has a host of friends in the Alamo City. H. A. B.

LET US REASON TOGETHER.

This is the third week in November and every subscriber and agent knows what this means. It means that all monthly bills must be paid. It takes money to pay bills, and The Colored American has a great many of them. Subscribers who know themselves to be in arrears should send their subscriptions in at once. This applies also to our great army of agents who have not settled for September. Don't wait to be dunned and then get mad about it. Settle up now and this means YOU.
